

Instructional Effectiveness Committee

Purpose & Function

The committee is concerned with enhancing the instructional effectiveness of the faculty at Marywood University. This covers a broad range of topics, such as (but not limited to) student-teacher evaluations, grading effectiveness, and the use of technology in the classroom. The committee's objectives are as follows:

- 1) Each semester the IEC invites the faculty to participate in a session regarding a topic concerning teaching effectiveness. The goal of the session is to assist faculty with their teaching duties to empower themselves and their students to achieve their full potential as members of an academic community.
- 2) The IEC provides organization, implementation, monitoring, and assessment for the Faculty Peer Review Program.
- 3) The IEC communicates and provides input as needed to related committees that focus on faculty needs, such as Greater Expectations or the Teaching Evaluation Form Committee.
